MISSION REPORT

Having received advice from Bern that no word had been received in Switzerland through pre-arranged channels regarding the safe arrival of Huppert in Berlin up to December 24, 1944, I sent Christian d'Albertini to check with Madame Maedia and other friends of Huppert in Paris.

(d'Albertini being a personal friend of Huppert, his visits arouse no suspicion.

It was thought that these persons might possibly have received information through other channels. Reports of d'Albertini visits are attached.

Conclusion: None of these persons had any information on Huppert.
